Hopes End of War, Will Restore His Wife and Daughter

After four years despairing of hearing from his wife and daughter, who went to Lemberg. Austria, in 1914, for a visit. L. Samuels, a carpenter contragtor, thinks the signing of peace will reunite him with his family.

Just before the war broke out Samuels, each his wife and daughter on a visit to her parents in Lemberg, and later forwarded transportation for their return. He has not heard from them from that day to this, and now that Lemberg is under attack by the Poles he fears that even if his wife and child escaped the earlier Galician hardships they may have fallen victims to the latest disorders in the Austrian city. Since American entry into the war Since American entry into the war Samuels has worked for the govern-ment on various cautonment jobs over the country. He has not given up hope that his wife and child are still alive and is keeping a daily vigil on the

No ice is reported in the nearby upper fiver, owing to the fact the worst of the celd wave has passed toward the Atlantic seaboard, leaving behind it gradually rising temperatures.

Last year, records show the river did not rise to dangerous proportions, although a great quantity of ice came down, causing the loss of several boats in the Memplas harber. A Jan was created near the bridge, which whiled in the stricken craft for days.

COTTON MARKETS

Cables Come Very Poor and Much Pressure This Side, But Some Recovery.

Monday Afternoon, Jan. 6.

Further activity on the part of the bear crowd in cotton was witnessed to-day aided by poor cables from Liverprool, and prices dropped almost 10h points before there was a turn in the title. March in New York sold as low as $2.10c, which compares with 25 cents one work ago and the recent high of 25.10c. The mostacomonly mentioned reason for the beaush success of the past few days is failure of the promised enlargement of spot demand to materialise. Although those who are holding the netual have not shown disposition to press anything for sale and apparently are undisturbed by the reversal in futures, consulerable fluidation has taken place, encouraging some outside selling and causing many stop loss orders to be unavoreed.

The surprise caused by the delayed spinnors takings figures, Hester making the amount for last week $55,000, hales, against $360,000 for the corresponding week of last year, furnished occasion for the improvement in support and a subsidence of beatish pressure. It is the first time in many weeks that the takings have been larger Further activity on the part of the at and a subsidence of bearran present in the liret time in many ceks that the takings have been larger an they were last year for the week, it it evidently was thought wise poly to curb the bearish energy, especials it remains to be seen how the an behind the bate will respond to the wer level. Liverpool was due 26 to 38 points to

Wants.

New Orleans—Greenville, Tex. wires: Very little cotton being sold on the de-cline Basis still high, better inquiry to-day than for a week, especially so with low grades. Parniers been unable to do any plowing and won't before at least three weeks, as ground too wet, farm ers say planting will surely be late this year.—Shepard & Clark.

New Orleans-Offerings were surpris-ingly heavy in first call. Bears evi-dently are trying to carry the reaction further. There is no news to accoun-for the selling.—Shepard & Gluck.

New York—Liverpool cables trade re-selling activity, unable make tenders emergency contract, causing heavy re-duction spots; no demand.—Hubbard to ficese. New York-Weld advises buying now trade been good buyer here today-Clevenburg to Cotter & Turner.

New York.-Liverpool keeps on selling here.-Hubbard. New Orleans. Present tendency and efforts bearish and may cause temporarily lower, but underlying opinion bullish: intention apparently to improve buying basis; favor conservative buying policy scale down.—Clark to Cotter & Turche.

New York.-After the call further juidation of recent purchases in evi-

New York.—Some large local traders measy over the situation.—Hubbard. New York.—The South and Liverpool continue to sell and the very heavy discounts are unquestionably indexes of the world's belief in lower prices. The whole European situation, political, commercial and financial, is anything but encouraging to higher prices. We continue to look for lower prices.—Fallon to Shepard & Gluck.

New York —Beadingtment mills to Cl. New York.—Readjustment mills to cl-lian trade and fear European radical-sm behind recent short selling.—McEl-oy to Cotter & Turner.

New York - Jenks favors purchases to breaks; good many stop orders aught on this last decline; selling professional - Clevenburg to Cotter. caught on this last decline; selling professional—Clevenburg to Cotter.

Montgomery—Offerings are absorbed readily for export account. Domestic business for Eastern and Southern mills has been on a decreased scale. The demand from American spinners will be saured by the demand for goods and the supply of labor at the mills. While it is rather early to prognosticate anything with any accuracy, as to the prospective planting, as far as the area or the fertilization is concerned, yet we may mention that thus far, possibly owing to had weather conditions, very little preparation or field work, ploughing, etc. has been done. Meantime, however, the return of farm hands from the army will augment labor in the cotton states to a considerable extent. The financial condition of the agricultural districts of the South is better than it has been for the last two decades. Cotton at its present prices might be called comparatively high, but to the farmer even at this price it has not brought any better results than other agricultural products.—Well Brothers.

New Orieans,—Galveston wires drop in occan freight rates of 50 cents including ship ports as Liverpool and Antwerp.—S. & G.

New York.—Liverpool has lost 20 to 30 gince opening and seems in a collapse.

New Orleans.—The seath is an-uneed of J. H. Hicks, Talladega, Ala., e of the most noted figures in the urket.—Shepard & Gluck.

New York.—McGee says they are all ong and that market will close a cent ower; liquidation been free and Liver-ool been seiling; hig buils seem to be tting market take care of itself.— leve to Cotter & Turner. New York.—Belated liquidation and cal selling in temporary absence any aterial demand cause weakness; with oot markets refusing to meet decline e expect eventually much higher mar-et.—Gwathmey & Co. to Foster.
